

GOOD NEWS FOR THE DEAF

If you are losing your hearing—if you are troubled with ringing and roaring in the ears—if you find that your nostrils are clogged—if you have given up hopes of finding relief, just go to Hiker & Hegeman, one of the best of the deaf, and put this with one pint of warm water. Put two drops in the affected ear every night. Put one tablespoonful in a fourth of a glass of warm water and gargle throat and snuff up nose night and morning. Keep this up for a few weeks and test your hearing and you will be pleased to note the improvement. You will also no doubt, discover that your catarrh has disappeared, and head noises gone. Adv.

DOCTOR ATTACKED AS WOMAN DIES WITH HER BABY

Husband and Physician in Battle as Police Block Women at Door.

Mrs. Beale Gunkles, thirty, wife of Samuel Gunkles, a tailor living in the crowded tenement at No. 215 Varot Street, Williamsburg, died in childbirth this morning. Excellent woman in the house attacked Dr. Gregory Aronowitz, No. 247 Throop Avenue, the attending physician. She dragged him into the hall and even procured a rope with which to lynch him.

Dr. Aronowitz, when he saw that the mother's life was in danger, had summoned aid from St. Catherine's Hospital, but before Dr. Signorelli could respond and assure the neighbors that his colleague was in no way to blame for the death, Patrolman Rosenfeld of the Stagg Street Station was compelled to run into the tenement, lock Dr. Aronowitz in the Gunkles' apartment, and fight off the infuriated crowd of women in the hallway.

The excitement ran so high that a call for the reserves was sent to the Stagg Street Police Station and Lieut. Koenig sent a squad of men. In the mean while the grief-stricken husband had attacked the doctor in the apartment, and when the reserves arrived they found the two with clothing torn, faces bruised and hair disheveled.

When Dr. Aronowitz was escorted out of the house the mob of women made another attack so fierce that the police were forced to use their clubs before a way could be cleared and the doctor taken to his home.

Investigation proved that the death of the mother and child was entirely accidental and no blame at all was attached to Dr. Aronowitz.

ODD SHIP ARRIVES.

Former Sloop-of-War Here for a British Cargo.

Another odd-looking ship forced into the merchant service by the insistent demand for more vessels reached here today with the arrival of the steam bark Pelican, formerly the sloop-of-war Pelican of the British Navy. Recently a mothball ship for submarines and a converted whaler were among the vessels pressed into service to reach New York for cargo.

The Pelican was built in 1877 by the British Admiralty. She is of the same class as the ship Condor, aboard which Lord Charles Bherford acquired fame at the attack of Alexandria. The Pelican, too, was in that engagement. She is now the property of the Hudson's Bay Company, and comes here for cargo for Great Britain.

'VICTORY CERTAIN; WE MUST WIN WAR,' SAYS POINCARÉ

Existence of France Depends on Triumph, With Allies, Over Enemies, He Tells French.

PARIS, July 14.—President Poincaré, speaking today at the ceremonies attending the transfer of the ashes of Capt. Claude Joseph Rouget de Lisle, author of the "Marseillaise," to their new resting place in the Hotel des Invalides, sketched the events in Europe leading up to the war, finding everywhere a deliberate purpose of Germany and Austria-Hungary "to provoke war for their own objects, as history will show."

"There is no soldier, no citizen and no woman of France but understands clearly that the whole future of the race, and not only honor, but our very existence, depend upon the heavy hours of this inexorable war," the President said.

"We have willed to win. We have the certainty of winning. We have as much confidence in our strength and that of our allies as in our right."

"At no moment have we neglected a word or act which could serve to dissipate this war. We have been innocent of a most brutal aggression, methodically premeditated, but since we were forced to draw the sword we have no right to put it back into the scabbard before the day when we shall have vindicated the dead, and until a common victory of the allies shall permit us to repair the ruins and to restore France integrally and prevent a periodic return of the provocations."

"WHAT'LL YUH HAVE?"
"Here's How" Is Heard Once More at Montclair.

That sound of loud but pleasant splashing borne by the westerly breezes across the Hudson this morning came from the reopening of the Montclair and retail thrust quoncherles at Montclair, N. J. Sharp at 7 o'clock eight retail and three wholesale beer and liquor reservoirs which had been closed for fourteen long and dry days were opened with a loud crashing of rusty locks.

All the quoncherles are licensed now for the next five months. Soon there will be a special election to decide whether Montclair shall be wet or dry after Nov. 1. The fee is $800, whether for big or small. At last night's session of the Council Mayor E. More timer Harrison and eight Councilmen voted for license; Walter Kiddie voted to license all the saloons except those in his ward and E. H. Newsom, all alone, voted "no" on all the licenses.

ROSE CONFESSED THE BECKER PLOT, LAWYER ASSERTS

Arm Squad, Which May Be Used Either in a Legal or in an Unofficial Way, He Was Not Optimistic as to the Outcome of Any Move in His Behalf.

Becker pointed out to his wife that his every effort to procure court intervention had met with failure, and he was not enthusiastic about a final appeal for a writ of habeas corpus. The question of financing this move was also discussed, and Becker understood to have urged that as much as possible be conserved for his wife, as almost all the money he had been spent in his behalf.

Frequently during the conference Becker reiterated that he believed his only hope lay in one of the informers recanting and telling a story that would save him.

"If the men who framed me up could receive a pledge of immunity I know that they could tell a story that would startle the country," Becker said after the conference when he was visited by Dr. Rudolph P. Diedling and J. T. Murphy of the State Prison Commission, who were inspecting Sing Sing. "The story they would tell would prove my innocence of the charges that I am responsible for the murder of Herman Rosenthal."

"Charles Platt—the testimony of that man is a tissue of falsehoods. He has been called my prison agent but he never was. The only dealings I ever had with him was that I had him to go to places I intended to raid a half hour before I started out, so that he could keep me posted of what was going on."

AGONY DRIVES PATIENT IN BELLEVUE TO SUICIDE
William Belmore, Suffering From Facial Erysipelas, Leaps From Window.

William Belmore, a real estate man, of No. 452 West One Hundred and Sixty-fourth Street, walked into Bellevue Hospital yesterday afternoon with a painful case of facial erysipelas. He was assigned to ward No. 11 on the third floor.

At 12:45 o'clock this morning he tore three boards off a lavatory window and dived to the ground, about forty-five feet below, smashing his skull and dying instantly. Apparently his reason for suicide was the great pain he suffered. He was forty years old.

AL RAY AND WILL REX STILL VERY MUCH ALIVE

When Canoe Was Run Down Held Up Two Women Until Help Arrived.

A published report that Al Ray and Will Rex, moving picture actors, were drowned yesterday afternoon off Atlantic Highlands, was authentically contradicted today by Mr. Ray and Mr. Rex. Beyond the after effects of inhaling large quantities of the Atlantic Ocean, both are normally active.

Ray, Rex, Margaret Burke and Miss Stude were in a canoe off the Highlands acting before a camera in a motor boat. The motor boat ran into the canoe and cut it in two. Ray and Rex held up the women until help arrived.

It is suspected that the press agent of the company employing the above named actors suffered a severe attack of industry last night.

HOPES DEATH SATISFIES. Suicide Leaves Note Before He Turns on the Gas.

"Mary: I hope you are satisfied now," was the note found by the body of a man known as August Graham, who rented a room ten days ago from Miss Elizabeth Stafford, No. 355 East One Hundred and Twenty-fourth Street, and who committed suicide there today by inhaling gas.

STAND FOR DEATH PENALTY.

Committee Vote Is Against Change in Constitution.

ALBANY, July 14.—By a virtually unanimous vote of the Bill of Rights Committee of the Constitutional Convention today decided against a proposal to abolish the death penalty by constitutional amendment. The committee was equally divided on a proposal to permit juries, in first degree murder cases, to recommend life imprisonment without commutation or pardon except in the case of established innocence.

WASHINGTON TO DEMAND ACTION FOR PACKERS

Will Make Formal Representation to Great Britain for Release of Meat Cargoes.

WASHINGTON, July 14.—After conferences with representatives of the leading American packers to-day, State Department officials said formal representations would be made to Great Britain for the release of Neutral meat cargoes detained by British naval authorities. The character of the representations has not been decided.

The packers complained that despite assurance of expedition of their cases before the British prize court, not one of their cargoes had been released so far. They said thirty-one American, British and other ships, carrying the American meat products consigned to the Scandinavian countries were held up. Postponements of which they have previously complained, they said, were continuing without reason, to the hardship of the packers.

Body Is Found in River. The body of a man was picked up in the North River to-day at One Hundred and Eighty-eighth Street. He was about forty-five, 5 feet 9 inches tall and weighed 160 pounds.

FRECKLES

Don't Hide Them With a Veil! Remove Them With the Othine Prescription.

This prescription for the removal of freckles was written by a prominent physician and is usually so successful in removing freckles and giving a clear beautiful complexion that it is sold by druggists under guarantee to refund the money if it fails.

Don't hide your freckles under a veil; get an ounce of Othine and remove them. Even the first few applications should show a wonderful improvement, some of the lighter freckles vanishing entirely.

Be sure to ask the druggist for the double strength Othine; it is this that sold on the money-back guarantee. Adv.
